The Right Technology

Every neighborhood or community is unique. With different needs, each one benefits from a tailored approach. To create maximum benefit on a cost effective basis, the Neighborware platform offers a variety of targeted product series with specific features and services to meet those unique needs. In some cases, the size of the community is a determining factor while in others it is the level of amenities, businesses and desired level of interactivity.

Regardless of the Series chosen, you will receive the proven benefit of years of experience understanding the needs of real estate communities as well as the ability to access an ongoing commitment to product leadership that keeps you on the cutting edge both now and in the years to come.

Use the descriptions below to help direct you to the most appropriate Series for your consideration. For a detailed listing of Features and related services, please visit our website at www.neighborware.com.

Signature Series Neighborware

The original Neighborware with the most complete set of the latest features and turnkey services appealing to communities of less than 500 homes to over 5000 homes along with extensive amenities, commercial areas, and institutional uses. Optional features facilitate linking multiple communities for a single builder, developer or property management company.

Common Features of a “Signature” Community

- Range in size from less than 500 homes to over 5000 homes.
- Often has extensive amenities, commercial areas, and associated development
- Often New Urban / Traditional Neighborhood Developments
- May be mixed-use communities, including single-family and multi-family units
- Sometimes marketed as a “high-tech” community

Neighborhood Series Neighborware

This ideal feature set has been tailored to the needs of neighborhoods with around 75 to more than 350 homes already in place and managed by a HOA or a property management company or under development by a builder or developer. Optional features facilitate linking multiple neighborhoods for a single builder, developer or property management company.

Common Features of a “Neighborhood” Community

- Range in size from ~75 homes to over 350 homes.
- Often communities that are completed
- May be single family, townhome, or apartment communities

Specialty Series Neighborware

There are times when standard or even heavily customized programs simply don't provide the best fit or greatest cost effectiveness. Perhaps it is your unique positioning in the marketplace or it may be the magnitude or complexity of your business that deserves special attention and boundless thinking. With Neighborware, the Neighborhood and Signature Series will very effectively meet the needs of most customers but for the most unique set of needs, the Specialty Series starts with a blank sheet of paper.

You receive the benefit of Neighborware marketplace leadership, years of experience, and critical mass. At the same time, you receive an extremely targeted solution. Let us closely match your unique needs with a solution that only Neighborware can provide.
